MR. EDITOR: Our village is exceedingly quiet. Booms have subeided, and the only thing now exciting contempt and criticism is the secret circulation, in a clandestine way, of a printed petition, one for the col-

Russel!, a colored preacher, to circulate the petition among the colored population for signers, and after cajoling and signing a number of names without authority, the whole thing is to be published with a great flourish of trumpets, and Mr. Nelson flourish of trumpets, and Mr. Nelson is to then announce himself. It might be interesting to those who may sign the petition to know that Mr. Nelson has already declared himself a candidate, and that he can not make himself any better by this clandestine RIM EARS. dodge.
